Day 1 Recipe for FUN: Paper chain countdown & meet the Shepherd

Supplies: Shepherd, scissors, tape, or stapler, and construction paper

Story time: Advent means coming. Who is coming? The baby Jesus is coming, it's His birthday! Are you excited for the baby Jesus? The Shepherd was so excited for the baby Jesus, that he followed a star to find him. Let's countdown until Christmas. That's the day baby Jesus comes. There are 28 days until Christmas. Let's countdown! Let's make a paper chain countdown. Every day we will tear off one link as we wait for baby Jesus.

Introduce the Shepherd. This is our Shepherd. He is going to show up in a new place every day to remind us that Jesus is coming! Shepherd joins you—drape the chain across the shoulders of your shepherd and let him take a selfie!

Be thinking about a name, because tomorrow we are going to name our Shepherd.

Activity: Cut out 28 strips of paper and loop them to one another using glue, staples, or tape.

* You can also create a paper countdown chain with construction paper.

Day 2 Recipe for FUN: Read the book and name your Shepherd

Supplies: Shepherd, book, Crayola® Crayons and printable coloring page

Story time: Read the book together as a family. Point to the Shepherd every time.

Activity: Give each member of the family (grown ups too) the coloring page. As you color talk about what you should name your Shepherd. A name is a very important thing. You have it all your life. Jesus has many names in the Bible. He is called the Messiah, Savior, King, LORD, the lamb...

If you could have more than one name what would you pick?

Once the Shepherd is named fill in the blank on each person's coloring page.

Day 5 Recipe for FUN: Jesus is the light of the world

Supplies: flashlights, candle, or glow sticks. Darkest room in the house (usually a bathroom with no windows).

Story time: Enter and ask, “Did you know that Jesus is the Light of the world?” Does anyone know what that means? When Jesus spoke again to the people, He said, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows Me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.” John 8:12

Activity: Gather the family and hand each one some type of light (flashlight, candle, battery candle, or glow stick). Before you enter the room make sure all light sources are extinguished or off. What was it like before Jesus? What is life like without Jesus? Let’s turn out the lights. Turn out the lights and talk in the dark. Can you see me? Do you like the dark? What do you like better, light or dark? Why do you like the light better? From the youngest to the oldest, turn on flashlights, candles, etc. If you have older children let each one take turns bringing light to the room. At the end have everyone light the room. Just like Jesus, we are to be the light of the world. Tomorrow we will be light in the world! (see day 6 activity) Shepherd joins you—take the Shepherd with you to the room.

Supplies: Shepherd, paper lunch bags(white or brown), stickers, crayons, paint, battery-operated tealites. Consider having guests over for dinner or dessert.

Story time: Jesus is the light of the world. The Shepherd followed the bright star’s light to get to baby Jesus. How does light help? Does it help us find a place? A thing? Does it make us smile? Is it pretty?

Activity: Decorate paper bags, add a battery tealite, and set them outside to bring light to your porch or sidewalk. These lights will help our guests find their way to our door, just like the bright star helped the Shepherd find his way to baby Jesus.

Day 8 Recipe for FUN: Memory verse

Supplies: Shepherd, printable memory verse cards

Story time: Our verse this week is in the book of Luke, chapter 10, verse 27. Some very smart people (you could insert priest, pastor, reverend) asked Jesus what is the most important thing and Jesus said, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."

Where is your heart? Is your body strong? What do you think with—your mind? Jesus wants us to love God with our whole self, our heart and soul, our strength, and our mind. All of it. And that's not all. He also tells us to love our neighbor. Who is our neighbor? Is your brother/sister your neighbor? A neighbor is someone who lives near you. That means Jesus wants us to love everyone close to us.

Supplies: Shepherd, your toy box/room.

Story time: The Shepherd left behind everything to find Jesus. Jesus left behind everything to be born in a manger and be our Savior, King, Redeemer. Think of your very favorite thing. Could you give that up? It would be really hard to give _____ up. You have to really love someone to give them your favorite thing. God really loves us so He gave us His Son. Today, let's do a little giving. You don't have to give your favorite thing. Let's go through all the toys and pick a few to give away. We have so many wonderful things to share with other children.

Activity: Gather toys/clothes to donate. Take them to a shelter, thrift store, or Goodwill. As you drive back home, pray for the people who will receive these gifts.

Supplies: Shepherd, white chocolate popcorn (see recipe below)

Pop two bags of microwaveable popcorn. Sort out all the kernels and place the popcorn in a large bowl. Melt 2 squares of white almond bark in the microwave. Pour over the popcorn and toss. Place in the freezer for 5 minutes to set the almond bark.

Story time: The Shepherd was on the search for the baby Jesus. The baby Jesus was God’s promise for a King. A king? How could a baby be the King? And why would a King be born in a barn with all the animals? Kings are rich and powerful. The Shepherd knew that this was the King, even though it didn’t look like it. Sometimes things don’t look like what they really are.

Activity: I made some popcorn for our snack. Take a bite and tell me if you like it. Wait—that’s not plain popcorn. It tastes sweet. But it looked like plain popcorn. Sometimes things don’t look like they really are. Our snack looked like plain popcorn, but it was really chocolate popcorn. The baby in the barn looked like an ordinary baby, but He was the promised King.

Day 22 Recipe for FUN: Memory Verse

Supplies: Shepherd, printable memory verse cards (4 to a sheet)

Story time: Our verse this week is in the book of Colossians, chapter 3, verse 15.
Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body; and be thankful. Colossians 3:15 NASB

Do you know what peace means? Is it like a piece of candy or a piece of pie? No, it is a different kind of peace. It's calm, still, happy, content. When our house is all quiet and we are snuggled on the couch, that feels peaceful. When you and your siblings are fighting that is not peaceful. Jesus brings a whole different kind of peace. A peace that lasts even when it doesn't seem peaceful. He makes your heart still, happy, and content. And when we have that kind of peace, we are thankful. What kinds of things are you thankful for?

Supplies: Shepherd, fresh cranberries, popcorn, thread, and plastic needles. Or if you have little ones, use ribbon and Froot Loops® or Cheerios™.

Story time: Jesus brings peace and we are thankful. What are some things that we are thankful for? Our house? Our family? Our dolly? Our bicycle? Sometimes we forget to be thankful for food. We have so many yummy things to eat and drink. God promised to always provide for us. He said, "I provide for the birds of the air, of course I will provide for you." Let's make a special treat for our birds today. And let's remember to be oh, so thankful for our breakfast, lunch, dinner, and all our snacks.

Activity: Give each child a plastic needle that is threaded and knotted at the end. Help him/her create a cranberry and popcorn garland for the birds. Once you are finished, hang that garland outside for the birds to eat. Each time you see the garland, remind your littles to be thankful for all that Jesus does for us.
